

Sentence Combining

1. There were two chipmunks. The chipmunks lived once upon a time.
2. They would pile nuts too high. The piled them every day.
3. They would be sure to have plenty of food. They'd be sure to have it next January.
4. One chipmunk piled too many nuts. The chipmunk piled them a certain way.
5. The other piled them. It piled them another way.
6. One chipmunk left the other alone. It left one October morning.
7. Hawks attacked each chipmunk. Hawks attacked them that evening.
8. The two chipmunks were reunited. The were reunited three days later.
9. There is safety in numbers. There is safety every time.
10. We don't have to do things. We don' have to do them the same way.