

Unit 4/A

Joining Two or More Items

New Directions: Joining words like and and or may link more than two items. When they link three or more items, we usually use the joining word between the last two items only.

1. Helen made a quiet wish. Helen blew out the candles. Helen cut the cake.
(,and)
2. It's quite hot. It's quite humid. It's quite foggy. (,and)
3. Give me a dollar. Give me four quarters. Give me ten dimes. (,or)
4. An A is a passing grade in school. A B is a passing grade. A C is a passing grade. (,or)
5. Don't blow your horn. Don't play your radio. (,) Don't gun your motor. (,or)
Don't do any of these in a quiet zone.
6. The British have a flag. Their flag is red. Their flag is white. (,) Their flag is blue. (,and)
7. We've grown quite a lot of strawberries. We've grown quite a lot of blueberries. (,) We've grown quite a lot of raspberries. (,and)
8. Harvey won a letter in football. Harvey won a letter in basketball. (,) Harvey won a letter in baseball. (,and)
9. We go to school in fall. We go to school in winter. (,) We go to school in spring. (,and)
10. We win some. We lose some. (,) We draw some. (,and)