

CUMULATIVE VOCABULARY REVIEW WORKSHEET, CHAPTER 1

Sentence Completion

Complete the sentences by using examples, details, or definitions that show you understand the meaning of the italicized word.

EXAMPLE: In an experiment, Charlie Gordon’s cognitive ability went from very low to the level of genius and then back again.

1. Alfonso thought his chance to make friends with Sandra was irrevocably lost when _____
2. Alfonso’s “cuts” were tangible because _____
3. Alfonso tried to refute Ernie’s idea that Sandra _____
4. After seeing Sandra, Ernie verified that she _____
5. The change in Charlie Gordon was apparent because _____
6. After dropping the dishes, the boy emerged _____
7. At first Joe Carp and Frank Reilly misled Charlie by _____
8. Joe Carp and Frank Reilly had an impulse to _____
9. In an introspective journal, _____
10. One hypothesis about improving memory suggests that _____

Matching Synonyms

Match each word in column A with its synonym from column B.

A	B
_____ 1. inevitable	a. worsening
_____ 2. deterioration	b. always
_____ 3. obscure	c. hide
_____ 4. provocative	d. unavoidable
_____ 5. invariably	e. stimulating