

Analyze the Conflict:

Conflict category or type:

Harriet Tubman VS Slave Owners

Internal _____ External

Briefly summarize the conflict:

Harriet Tubman believes that all men and women are free, that all were created by God with certain rights, that no person should be owned by another. She is therefore opposed to slavery and is committed to doing her share to free slaves.

An action by Harriet Tubman that is related to the conflict:

In the face of severe penalties, including possible death, if she is caught, Harriet Tubman leads slaves away from their owners without their owners' consent. She does this in secret. She uses the Underground Railroad, which begins in the South and ends in Canada.

Motives for Harriet Tubman's action(s)

What do the character's actions and/or motives reveal about him or her?

Harriet Tubman is ...

- (1) This characterization is based on what the author tells us directly about the character's traits. _____
- (2) This characterization is based on what the character
 - (a) says
 - (b) does
 - (c) thinks
 - (d) appears
 - (e) or the way other characters react to this character.
- (3) What kind of characterization is this?
 - (a) Direct _____
 - (b) Indirect _____

Now review your work. For questions 1-3, check or circle all that apply.

Analyze the Conflict:An action by the farmer that is related to the conflict:*Motives for the farmer's action(s)*Conflict category or type:

The German Farmer VS Society and the Law

Internal _____ External

Briefly summarize the conflict:

After being turned away from the first farm, Tubman and her escaped slaves go to the home of a German farmer. The German family, who is unnamed, does not believe in slavery, which puts them at odds with the laws of the time. Family members could face severe penalties, including jail or possible death, if they are ever caught helping slaves.

The German farmer and his wife greet and care for Harriet Tubman and the escaped slaves without any hesitation whatsoever. The slaves are given food and a warm place to sleep. As a result, the slaves will be well-rested the next day as they continue their journey.

What do the character's actions and/or motives reveal about him or her?

The German farmer is ...

- (1) This characterization is based on what the author tells us directly about the character's traits. _____
- (2) This characterization is based on what the character (a) says (b) does (c) thinks (d) appears (e) or the way other characters react to this character.
- (3) What kind of characterization is this? (a) Direct _____ (b) Indirect _____

Now review your work. For questions 1-3,
check or circle
all that apply.

NAME _____ Story _____ Character _____

Analyze the Conflict:

An action by the character
that is related to the conflict:

Motives for the character's action(s)

Conflict category or type: VS <hr style="border-top: 1px dashed black;"/> Internal _____ External _____ Briefly summarize the conflict:
What do the character's actions and/or motives reveal about him or her? _____ is ...

- (1) This characterization is based on what the author tells us directly about the character's traits. _____
- (2) This characterization is based on what the character (a) says (b) does (c) thinks (d) appears (e) or the way other characters react to this character.
- (3) What kind of characterization is this? (a) Direct _____ (b) Indirect _____

Now review your work. For questions 1-3,
check or circle
all that apply.